ISP, INMATES HELP THE HOMELESS

Oct 16, 2019

Submitted photo / Indiana Dept. of Correction The Indiana State Prison donated $5,000 on Oct. 1, to Citizens Concerned for the Homeless, a local charity which includes Sandcastle Shelter and Grace Learning Center. CCH executive director James Musial, right, and board president Ed Merrion, left, were on hand to accept the donation from ISP Warden Ron Neal. "The offenders assisted in raising the donation via special event food sales," Neal said. "Staff at Indiana State Prison helped identify the local organizations to benefit from the donations, and chose CCH."
